

Suicide Assessment and Intervention Training for Mental Health Professionals

A Comprehensive Training Created by Riverside Trauma Center
Approved in 2015 by the SPRC Best Practices Registry for Suicide Prevention

Here's what attendees are saying:

- ◆ “Superb presentation with just the right balance of in-depth knowledge and excellent practical applications. Jim and Larry are thoughtful, engaging and quite simply remarkable in their ability to take a challenging topic and leave you feeling hopeful.
-Mariko Sakurai, PhD, Senior Staff Psychologist,
Brookline Community Mental Health Center
- ◆ “Hands down – excellent. Best training on this topic I have ever attended. Thank you, thank you, thank you.”
-Becky Dill, LCSW, Clinical Case Manager,
Community Teamwork
- ◆ “This is a phenomenal training – thank you. As you stated, I learned none of this 15 years ago in grad school and I think most trainings do not understand suicide in the ways Riverside Trauma Center staff does, so thank you!”
-Andrea Kramer, LMHC, Employee Assistance Program,
Family Services of the Family Services Valley
- ◆ “I really enjoyed your workshop last week. You are so passionate about your work that it's very easy to listen to you! I came away with a lot of useful information and I feel better equipped to work with students struggling with suicidal thoughts.”
-Mental Health Professional
- ◆ “This was an outstanding, well organized, comprehensive training.”
-Nikkey Mullen, EAP Director
- ◆ “Wonderful presentation and presenters! The assessment tools, overview of personal reactions, and resources for intervention were very helpful!”
-Tiffany Stoffel, MA, Intake Case Manager,
North Shore Elder Services
- ◆ “Excellent training. It should be mandatory for everyone who works in mental health.”
